HOUSEHOLD CARES

Take the Women of Barre the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties. With a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back. And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys. Here is a Barre woman who endorses this claim:
Mrs. M. Gambel, 21 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "I suffered terribly for two or three years with severe pains across my back and up my side. I had headaches and spells of dizziness and a distressing kidney weakness that compelled me to rise often during the night and thus disturbed my rest. The doctors gave me medicines but I received little benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills sold by E. A. Brown, the druggist. It was only a few days before I could see that they were helping me. The improvement was gradual and as I kept on taking them, the remedy became better in every way. My kidneys became normal in action. I can honestly say that I never found anything that proved of such great benefit as Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A PIECE OF GRAVEL.

Caused Wreck at Vergennes Saturday Is Report.

Rutland, Dec. 4.—General Manager George T. Jarvis of the Rutland railroad company gave out a statement yesterday to the effect that the wreck at Vergennes, resulting in the death of three persons, was caused by a piece of gravel. This got into the angle crotch of the gravel car and opened it so that the entire brake system was out of commission. This prevented engineer Murray from stopping the train, although he had ample time after seeing the obstruction.

Outwits the Surgeon.
A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition that her doctor advised an operation, but her husband fearing fatal results postponed this to try Electric Bitters, and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cures for: torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Red Cross pharmacy. Try it.

If You Were Offered

An Active Liver for a sluggish one,
A Sweet Breath for a bad one,
A Strong Stomach for a weak one,
Rosy Cheeks for pale ones.

Would You Trade?

Virginia Velvets

One at Night—
O. K. Next Morning.

Keeps the stomach sweet, the liver active, cleanses the bowels, robs digestion of its terror, fits you for strong physical or mental labor.

Would you trade twenty-five cents for health? That yellow look for a rosy hue? Then go to your druggist, trade 25c for a bottle of "Virginia Velvets." Take one tonight and you will be O. K. in the morning. Then if you could not get another bottle of "Virginia Velvets" for 25c, you would not trade your bottle for 25c.

This is the only remedy ever discovered for constipation and liver troubles that does not cause the nightly pill habit. Unlike all other remedies for constipation, the opener you use "Virginia Velvets," the less you have to use. It is not necessary to go on using them forever and in increasing doses. It is the safest, surest, smoothest remedy for constipation ever discovered. No wonder it has been named "Velvets" by those who know. If you should be the one exception and not like them, you can take your bottle back to your druggist and he will refund your money. "Virginia Velvets" are guaranteed by the manufacturers.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FIRST. If he will not accommodate you, we will. Price 25c per bottle. Sent postpaid to any address on receipt of price.

ACQUITTED OF KILLING.

Jury Says H. A. Brown is Not Guilty on Self Defense Plea.

Boston, Mass., December 4.—The jury in the case of Henry A. Brown, colored, a former member of the Boston Commonwealth Council, charged with the murder of Charles F. Queen, on Oct. 2, at the Park street station of the subway, yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty, holding that he shot in defense of his life. Brown rose in his seat and said to the jury: "I thank you gentlemen—" when a by-stander said: "Sit down; be quiet."

Brown at once took his seat. When he was discharged and entered the corridor he found it was full of colored people—friends, acquaintances and many merely interested onlookers. They crowded around Brown and repeatedly congratulated him.

Brown on the witness stand, declared that Queen had threatened to kill him. Brown said that Queen had attacked him in the subway station and, backing him up against a pillow, hissed: "Now I'll kill you." Brown swore that he only fired when he feared life was in danger.

WRITER SOUGHT.

Police Fail to Find Author of Letter as to Plot on Life of King Victor.

Milan, Dec. 4.—Search has been made at Bergamo, with the view of discovering the sender of a threatening letter to King Victor Emmanuel, referring to a plot formed by what the writer termed the "Holy Alliance" to assassinate the King, but the efforts of the police have been fruitless.

AN ENTERPRISING, CLEAN, AND THOROUGHLY INDEPENDENT JOURNAL DEVOTED TO THE PROTECTION AND ADVANCEMENT OF THE BROAD PUBLIC INTERESTS.

Established in 1824 by SAMUEL BOWLES
Daily (Morning), $8. Sunday, $2. Weekly, $1.

THE REPUBLICAN, in its Daily and Sunday editions, offers a New England Newspaper of Character and influence, thoroughly up-to-date, but still remaining true to the best principles of national and intelligent journalism. Its aim is to put out every day in the year the best newspaper that it is possible to produce. New England news is presented with special thoroughness, and each issue contains reliable and comprehensive information of the world's affairs.

The editorial page of The Republican is kept fully up to the high standard which has distinguished this journal for over three-quarters of a century and made it famous. No partisanship or special interests dictate its utterances on political or other public questions. Regular departments give due attention to literature, art, the drama, music, sports, and outdoor life, the distinctive interests of women, science and education, business and progressive agriculture.

Every effort is made to deliver this complete newspaper to its subscribers with dispatch and regularity. The Daily and Sunday editions go into many states outside of New England, while the Weekly Republican, a 16 page newspaper and magazine combined, goes all over the world.
